

---

Anything else

E

Impact on Business

WTG previously operated a similar facility in Hull until the site leased for that operation was selected to be the Siemens Wind Farm Assembly site, and we were forced to move. Immingham was the only site offered by ABP to allow continuity of operations. If a permit is not granted the business will be unable to continue operations, significant investment will be wasted, and the business of WTG and its main customer will have to consider further relocation elsewhere in the country.