Do you know an individual or group living or working in North East Lincolnshire who deserve recognition for their outstanding achievements and contribution to the borough? Then we want to hear from you.

Nominations are now being sought for the 2021 Civic Awards

(Sponsored by myenergi)

“At myenergi, we are local people, running a local business and in turn we want to recognise local people, running local businesses, helping local causes and developing local talent. Celebrating individual achievements, environmental initiatives, and community kindness in an everchanging landscape is how we can encourage ourselves to do better, aim higher and celebrate each other’s success. Therefore, we are proud to partner with North East Lincolnshire Council for the inaugural Civic Awards and we very much look forward to seeing all the positive examples our local community have to share.”

Kate Tyrell
Corporate Events & Relationships Manager

These are new awards for 2021 and are an opportunity for the Civic Office to officially recognise the commitment and hard work of those who strive to make a positive difference to the lives of others.

The awards comprise of 9 categories for you to make your nominations.

Each nomination will be reviewed by a judging panel and winners will be presented with their award by the Mayor in March 2022.

Please see the category criteria and terms and conditions below.

Community Together Award
(Sponsored by Grimsby Fish Merchants Association)

“The Fish Merchants Association represents the fish and seafood processing community of over 50 approved processors and 100 independent mobile fish vans. Grimsby has over 5,500 people working every day in our community creating 100’s of Made Great in Grimsby seafood and fish products. This community underpins and has common links into other communities in Grimsby.”

Simon Dwyer – Seafox

For an individual, community group or organisation who is involved in bringing communities together through a local project or community event or have excelled in supporting local communities to support themselves. This Award celebrates those who clearly show the ethos of using the strengths and potential of individuals and groups to help people help themselves.

Creative Excellence Award
(Sponsored by Healing Manor)

“We are so excited to be sponsoring the Creative Excellence Award for this year’s Civic Awards. Not only is it super important to focus on all the incredibly positive work people in our local community have been carrying out over this past year, but as a creative from the area this is a category after my own heart. I think it is so important to champion creatives in North East Lincolnshire and really showcase the incredible talent and hard work that happens in Grimsby and the surrounding area.”

Charlotte Bennett
Director

For an individual, community group or organisation that has contributed to raising the profile of the arts within North East

Lincolnshire. This may be visual arts, amateur dramatics, or music. They may be the star of the show or they could work behind the scenes, helping to make it happen, giving the people of North East Lincolnshire the opportunity to express themselves creatively.

Sporting Achievement Award
(Sponsored by Humberside Police and Crime Commissioner)

For an individual, community group or organisation that has helped to create a lasting sporting legacy in North East Lincolnshire by promoting or encouraging more participation in sport or by representing North East Lincolnshire in their sport. This award also celebrates and thanks those who give up their time to working behind the scenes at local sporting clubs and groups.

Youth Sporting Achievement Award
(Sponsored by Forrester Boyd Wealth Management)

“Forrester Boyd Wealth Management are delighted to support the 2021 Civic Awards. We are delighted to sponsor the Youth Sporting Achievement Award. Community engagement, sports and mental health are more important now than ever, so we are thrilled to see our youth recognised for their contributions.”

Alison Mitchell Marketing Manager

For a young individual, community group or organisation that has helped to create a lasting sporting legacy in North East Lincolnshire by promoting or encouraging more participation in sport or by representing North East Lincolnshire in their sport. This award also celebrates and thanks those who give up their time to working behind the scenes at local sporting clubs and groups.

Environmental Achievement Award
(Sponsored by Dalkia Wastenergy)

‘Dalkia Wastenergy are very happy to support the Environmental Achievement Awards and would like to congratulate not just the winners of the awards, but everyone that has participated and continues to do their bit in helping save the environment.’

Sharon Hunt
Managing Director

For an individual, community group or organisation working to celebrate, improve or protect the environment in which we live. This award is for those who voluntarily strive to improve the outside surroundings and environment within their neighbourhood, community, or the whole of North East Lincolnshire.

Youth Environmental Achievement Award
(Sponsored by Dalkia Wastenergy)

For an individual under 21, community group or organisation working to celebrate, improve or protect the environment in which we live. This award is for those who voluntarily strive to improve the outside surroundings and environment within their neighbourhood, community, or the whole of North East Lincolnshire.

Young Achiever Award
(Sponsored by YMCA Humber)

“Supporting young people to achieve their ambitions is the foundation of all of the work we do at YMCA Humber. We believe everybody has potential to unlock, so as the world’s oldest youth charity we are delighted to sponsor the Young Achiever Award 2021.”

Kate Conway
Head of People and Policy

To celebrate an inspirational young person - 21 or under – who has made an outstanding contribution by volunteering within the community, demonstrating leadership, commitment, and enthusiasm. This individual will be a role model in their community, making a real difference to another individual, their community or a cause.

Business in the Community Award
(Sponsored by E-Factor Group Ltd)

“We have sponsored this award because we realise how important local business is to the future of our community. Conceived created and grown by members of that same community. E Factor are proud to be supporting the Mayor’s Charity”

Mark Webb
Managing Director

North East Lincolnshire has many outstanding businesses that play a crucial role in the improvement of life in the borough through supporting the community, with a clear social corporate responsibility ethos. This award recognises the businesses that have invested in North East Lincolnshire’s communities through sponsorship or other forms of support to make it a better place to work, play and stay.

Healthy Living Award
(Sponsored by Ish Fish)

“Ish Fish like to play a big part in the community, from our sponsorship with Cleve Town, Jack Grant, and working with Fortis Therapy we believe in putting back and this along with the healthy living category fits in with what we are trying to achieve! So good luck everyone.”

Garry Bainbridge

For an individual, community group or organisation that has improved the health and well-being of an individual, many people, their local community, or the whole of North East Lincolnshire. This can relate to any aspect of health, including mental health, emotional, social, and physical well-being.

Mayor’s Award for Outstanding Achievement
(Sponsored by Jembuild)

“Growing up locally and developing a construction business over the last ten years I appreciate how challenging business is, particularly in these changing times.

By NELC recognising the achievements that have been made by honouring local people, organisations or businesses I see this will have a hugely positive effect on those nominees by knowing they are being recognised for what they do.”

Paul Barker
Managing Director

This Award will be selected by The Mayor and is a special achievement Award celebrating an individual for their outstanding contribution and dedication to the borough. This person will have gone above and beyond over many years, showing a long-term commitment to their community or to the whole of North East Lincolnshire.
