

VOICE OF THE CHILD

TOOLKIT

01

ABOUT ME

this enables the child to draw and express 'their family', their favourite things and support they wanted. This is suitable for younger children. Includes about me, circle of support, how I feel and what I would like my worker to do for me.

VOLCANO SCALE

this can be used with children to explore and discuss their longer and situations that may trigger their anger, this can then support with their worker in making changes to their choices and ultimately reducing and managing their anger.

PROBLEM SOLVING MOUNTAIN

this could be used with older children to look at their behaviour choices and their feelings and thoughts that influence their behaviour. It can also be used to break down a problem into small steps. This is a tool that can be used as part of the protective behaviours strategies.

YOUR FACEBOOK PROFILE OF THE FUTURE

tool for older children to consider choices and behaviour they may be presenting with now and how that might impact on their future and how others might perceive them.

like the volcano this tool is for discussion and problem solving for young people who are experiencing angry feelings. The volcano is aimed at younger children while the thermometer is for older age group.

EMOTIONS & COLOUR FEEL

is for older children and young people and possibly parents. It opens up opportunities to recognise and label emotions and feelings and the different aspects each area creates.

similar to the anger thermometer this opens discussions to help understand their anxiety levels and triggers to begin to manage their anxiety. Can also be used with parents.

CHARACTER TRAITS

this can be used like a word search and distal strengths along with other character traits. As with everyone the key to changing behaviours is to first understand ourselves. It's a good tool for self-esteem work as you could ask other people to circle the good things for an individual.

FAIRY

33 THINGS CHILDREN SHOULD DO BY THE AGE OF 10

this is a fun tool to use with families to support parents and children having time together to build positive relationships and memories. It's a deal to give a 'challenge' for school holidays, if appropriate. Some activities could be used with a worker and family to model and coach a parent to build their confidence.

AT MAKES YOU FEEL SAFE

this is a sheet to use alongside protective behaviours work, to help children identify people and things that make them feel safe.

FEELINGS, THOUGHTS & BEHAVIOURS

this tool is used for exploring specific incident or behaviour, i.e. hitting someone who would be the event, the sheet is then used to explore what feelings and thoughts might be influencing behaviour choices and then to look at other choices.

the tree is used to make a place for worries on the tree to open discussion and understand what might be worrying a child or young person. it's a similar concept to making a postbox and posting your worries at the end of a day to aid better sleep and reduce worry and possible bad dreams.

FEELINGS COLOURING CART

the chart is used to look at different areas of a child's life and how they are feeling about them. it is good to use colours that might represent emotions and help understand and measure the child's feelings.

AIR BALLOON

this is a representational tool for young people to explore and discuss their goals and any challenges to reaching them.

helps gain insight into a child's life without having to rely on questions and answers in interviews

ANGER THERMOMETER

Rank your experiences with anger on a scale from 1 to 10. A "10" should be the angriest you can imagine and a "1" should be completely calm. Include a short description of what happened, how you reacted, how you felt, and what the consequences were. Everyone experiences anger in different ways, so your scale might not be the same as someone else's!

LETTING GO OF WORRIES

Imagine that there is a tree called the Hug Me tree. It is so big and has so many branches that it can take away all your worries for you. Draw or write about any worries you might have and hang them on the branches. You can use the Hug Me tree at night to hang up your worries before you go to sleep.....just picture it in your mind!

Imagine yourself giving the Hug Me tree a great big hug!
