Operating schedule/proposed licence conditions

This is a new business venture and the site, currently empty, is to be refurbished as a new general convenience store which will sell a wide range of goods to the local community including magazines, bread, milk, sweets, cigarettes, soft drinks, cigarettes, household goods etc. The shop will operate under the national 'Today' branding

The proposed alcohol sales would allow the new business to offer a complete all-round convenience service to customers. Alcohol would just be a part of the business.

A detailed and comprehensive operating schedule is proposed to promote the licensing objectives;

Prevention of crime and disorder

A CCTV camera system, capable of providing good quality images in all lighting conditions, shall be used covering the interior and the immediate exterior (entrance) of the premise. Images will be retained for a period of at least 28 days and be made available to the Police and Authorised Officers upon reasonable written request for evidential purposes, in accordance with the relevant data protection legislation (currently GDPR 2018).

The CCTV recording equipment shall be kept in a secure environment under the control of the premises licence holder (PLH) and/or another named responsible individual.

The DPS and staff will be vigilant and monitor the area immediately outside the shop to check that youths are not causing annoyance by congregating.

Spirits will be kept behind the counter

Any incidents of crime and disorder at or immediately outside the premises, witnessed by staff, will be recorded in an incident book kept at the shop. This book will be made available for inspection by the Police and the other responsible authorities.

The shop shall operate an alcohol refusals policy as follows - alcohol will not be sold to;

- (1) Any person recognised or identified as a street drinker (regardless of their level of inebriation at the time);
- (2) Any person found to be drinking alcohol in the street;
- (3) Any person who is drunk or appears to be drunk;
- (4) Any person suspected of trying to buy alcohol for another person who is drunk or appears to be drunk;
- (5) Any person unable to provide valid ID when requested by staff;
- (6) Any person who is verbally or physically abusive towards staff or customers.
- (7) To any person suspected of trying to buy alcohol for another person(s) who may be under age.

A notice advising customers of the refusals policy shall be on display.

Public safety

No specific risks have been identified under the Licensing Act 2003

(note – the applicant is aware of the need to comply with other legislative requirements to ensure that the shop is safe for customers and staff).

Prevention of public nuisance

Deliveries to the shop will be arranged during hours which will not lead to any public nuisance.

A notice(s) will be on display in the shop asking customers to leave the shop quietly

A notice(s) shall be on display asking customers not to drop any litter on the floor.

Staff will monitor the area immediately outside the shop on a regular basis to check for, and to dispose of, any litter.

Protection of children from harm

The Challenge 25 scheme shall be adopted and appropriate signage will be on display.

Alcohol will only be sold to people who can satisfy or prove to the seller that they are 18 years old or over. The only acceptable form of ID will be a passport, photo driving licence, a PASS accredited proof of age card, or other form of photo ID as recommended by Trading Standards.

A refusals register (for the sale of alcohol) will be used and be made available for inspection by responsible authorities.

A notice(s) shall be displayed in the premises where they can be seen clearly to advise customers that it is unlawful for persons under 18 to purchase alcohol or for any persons to purchase alcohol on behalf of a person under 18 years of age.

All staff selling alcohol will be trained on the prevention of underage sales. Training will be delivered on a regular basis (every 12 months) and records will be made available for inspection by Authorised Officers.
